

WHO-FIC Implementation and Information Tracker (IMINT)

The World Health Organization (WHO) has developed an online product to capture and display comprehensive and up-to-date information on the implementation status of its Family of International Classifications (FIC) at global, regional and country levels.

The need for a systemic approach to the capture of mortality, morbidity, functioning and interventions data in health information systems has long been recognised. The Implementation and Information Tracker, or the IMINT, has been developed to supply this information for countries' surveillance systems but with the ability to highlight potential areas for improvement.

The IMINT contains 11 sections to complete based on the previous WHO-FIC Implementation Database and the WHO mortality and morbidity surveillance questions.

Screenshots of sections in the IMINT:

The image displays two screenshots of the WHO-FIC Implementation and Information Tracker (IMINT) form. The top screenshot shows Sections 3, 4, and 5, while the bottom screenshot shows Sections 6 and 6.4.

Piloting of the IMINT was undertaken in February/March of 2022, and analysis of results was completed in April/May 2022; roll out to country focal points commenced in June 2022.

The WHO hopes to provide a further update on the IMINT later in the year.
